Comments for Public Posting: The past two years offered some historic moments, but none brought me more joy than seeing my community gather outside day after day. This hasn't always been true as seen by the number of pedestrians hit and killed every year. LADOT must secure funding to not only expand SLOW STREETS, but complete existing permanent projects already pending. Streets should be for everyone not just cars. Fast-track Slow Streets, once and for all, because the safety of LA's citizens depends on it.
