Comments for Public Posting: The neighborhood council system under the esteemed auspices of one Ms. Raquel Beltran have become an institution where well intended and ambitious neighbors are asked to jump through an ever increasing series of flaming hula hoops only to discover that the dangled carrot of actual government change has been a bait and switch of the highest order. However, these failures are not that of the neighborhood council members and the blame must be laid at the feet of a department who has waylaid its mission in favor of some other glory. How many hours and laborious tears were wasted on a machine that cares not to hear us? Accountability is a fraught word in the City of Angels but perchance we may, in due course, see a sprig of Justice.
