Comments for Public Posting: This moratorium has been the worst! My son is going to college in the next year . I am paying $37,500 out of my pocket , away from my sons college fund to house my tenant who acts like she doesn't owe me any rent. I have no control over my house . No rent coming in. Where is the justice ?? Where is this equitable ? @nithyaraman, @bonin and all the progressives who want to help the tenants where is my justice ? I am at the mercy of my tenant and your legal system to sell my property. Why am I burdened ? Who is going to pay me ? Tell me ! Answer me You have taken my property without my permission.
