To Whom it May Concern:

I am a concerned Los Angeles citizen who is calling for the resignation of Nury Martinez, Gil Cedillo, and Kevin de León..

After hearing the recording of racist and violent comments said by Martinez, a leave of absence is not sufficient enough, in the least. The rhetoric used within the walls of our government should not be this way. Our leaders must do better, which is why they must resign and more fit candidates should take their place. They work for the people and they have not represented the people of this city.

It is clear that conversations and speech like this have gone on behind closed doors for a long time - it was just recorded and leaked this time. So I would love to see my local officials demand immediate and necessary change, starting with their resignations.

With the elections coming up next month, I am wanting what is best for our city of Los Angeles, and this type of behavior and language should not be tolerated.

Thank you for your time,
Sterling Sulieman

Good afternoon Family,

We hope you've all been doing well. This past week has no doubt been eventful, but we first want to take this moment as a call for accountability and demand that Nury Martinez and

Kevin de Leon resign from their LA city council positions and remove themselves completely from the public office. There is absolutely no room for racism or hate. We are frustrated. The Los Angeles community, and the society at large, deserves better. We deserve better. This is a call to action. Nury Martinez, Kevin de Leon, and all others involved must resign.

In the meantime, WalkGood LA has and will continue to do the good work. This past Saturday we Hiked Good! We made it through a hot and sunny day on the Sandstone Peak Trail with @adventurewithdee. It was our toughest hike yet, as we traversed 5 miles of the elevated and rocky landscape, but we did it. The next day at BreatheGood, we were led through a wonderful yoga flow with @corneliusjonesjr, who warmly reminded us that yoga is indeed for everyone; there is no judgment, only support from the community at WalkGood LA.

We will be taking a brief hiatus as the some of the family travels to Jamaica over the weekend, so there will be no BreatheGood on October 16th, but we will be back the following week, with many more experiences in store! WalkGood experiences are for everyone. If you have been hesitant to join, now is the time! You can always view all photos by @kavipictures HERE.

But wait! One last thing! Starting today, we have an exclusive promo code [GOODTINGS] for you to use as you shop WalkGoodWear now (click here). We're restocking and have exciting new merch coming soon, stay tuned. Thank you for joining our newsletter and being a part of the WalkGood community
