

Communication from Public

Name: Jeffrey Mausner

Date Submitted: 10/20/2022 05:16 PM

Council File No: 22-1180

Comments for Public Posting: The budget for the Department of Animal Services (LAAS) has to be greatly increased. Jack Humphreville, the person most knowledgeable about the Los Angeles City budget, has called for an INCREASE of at least $25 million to the Department's budget. Please see: Animal Services Needs Management, Oversight, and Cash, August 25, 2022, <https://citywatchla.com/index.php/la-watchdog/25352-animal-services-needs-management-oversight-and-cash> Please see also: Crucial City Funding: Spay and Neuter Saves Money and Lives, December 2, 2019, <https://citywatchla.com/index.php/budget-advocates-hidden/18933-crucial-city-funding-spay-and-neuter-saves-money-and-lives> New LAAS Budget Must Ensure That No Healthy Adoptable Animal is Killed for Lack of Space, May 13, 2019, <https://citywatchla.com/index.php/budget-advocates-hidden/17663-new-laas-budget-must-ensure-that-no-healthy-adoptable-animal-is-killed-for-lack-of-space> LA Animal Services In Desperate Need of Funding ... the Lives of Dogs Like Cleo and King (above) are at Stake, <https://citywatchla.com/index.php/budget-advocates-hidden/17548-la-animal-services-in-desperate-need-of-funding-the-lives-of-dogs-like-cleo-and-king-above-are-at-stake> and other articles here: <https://citywatchla.com/index.php/component/search/?searchword=Mausner&searchphrase=all&Itemid=113> This comment is written in my private individual capacity, and not on behalf of LAAS.