Comments for Public Posting: Please preserve the Pacific Dining Car!! As the landscape changes all around LA, we are losing so many historical structures and to lose a 101-(!!!)-year-old gem like this place would be a terrible shame. I've spent very happy birthdays and gatherings at this joint, I love its unusual vibe and decor so much. There's nowhere else like it. Don't we all love the feeling of living, breathing, and eating in part of LA's storied history? Save the Baseball Steak!

Comments for Public Posting: Los Angeles must protect its history to maintain its culture. The Pacific Dining Car is an iconic and historical place with over a hundred years of serving the LA people. The whole building deserves to be protected so that its legacy and the legacy of old Los Angeles lives on. Please stop turning LA into a landscape of soulless boxes. Protect the Pacific Dining Car.
