Comments for Public Posting: City council - you should move on to solving real problems like enhancing education standards , better infrastructure, digital transformation of your archaic systems, improving healthcare accessibility , mental health support. Instead the only policy that you all are stuck on is anti housing and stealing properties from all of us. Stop this bloody moratorium , give us our properties back and have your tenants be accountable to pay rents. Like where do you guys even get your degrees from . Nithya got hers from Harvard supposedly and all she has to do is pass more anti housing providers policies. With all of you making salaries over $250k and pension plan, healthcare, transportation at our tax dollars, sure why won't you pass laws against us . Get your act together and end this moratorium at once . The story of harassment by these tenant advocates are getting old . And to penalize a few unruly landlords, you are destroying the many many good ones with your shitty policies .

Comments for Public Posting: Nithya and the other progressives as much as want to call themselves socialists send their kids to private schools , make over 250,000 in salary and have secure income unlike most small housing providers. The policies are rigged to an extent where every aspect of contractual adherence by tenants who are even committing fraud has been prohibited . Why would anyone want to be in the business of helping anyone else by being a affordable housing provider ? Nithya says she needs data to confirm that the small housing providers are indeed suffering before she can make the distinction between small and corporate landlords . Really? We DO NOT have activists falsifying information for us. we DO NOT have the bandwidth to leave our jobs to come and show up with shitty false stories about harassment by our tenants. we DO NOT have financial , emotional, physical strength to keep convincing you and the other progressive socialists that our lives matter, our property right matter. This is injustice and I urge that the rest of the folks like Monica, bob, krekorian, hutt, busciano, ofarrell and koretz do the right thing by voting no for extensions and anymore amendments.
