Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to urge you to vote NO on ending emergency eviction protections on 1/31, and instead keep those protections in place until you can adopt and implement strong permanent tenant protections preferably ones that end the commodification of housing. I also urge you to fix the just cause ordinance language so that it reflects council's directive and doesn't leave out some tenants. Since 2008, the housing crisis has gotten worse because housing has become more of a commodity that simply creates profits for a wealthy few.

Comments for Public Posting: City council on 12/2 was a spectacle . Let me play it out. I see councilman Lee , the council President and maybe 1-2 other council people . Commotion the first few minutes . Starts way after the scheduled time. Other members are barely paying attention. Fuckin Raman is nowhere to be seen while landlords call in and speak and talk about the issues. She walks in almost 2 hrs into the call like high profile b***. Dawson is laughing away, Bob and His legislative staff can be least bothered with landlord problems . Who the fuck do you guys work for ? Raman doesn't want to hear to any of the landlord issues.Tenants and their activists who have nothing else but want to be free loaders keep calling in with lies. Sure !! And that's all raman and her staff want to listen to. When you talk to her she wants data to prove landlord hardship to the point of foreclosures and bankruptcy filings. So unless it's that, our problems are not really problems?! What the fuck ? And now she is keeping the ordinance hostage to be passed ? Why ? Bob - you are useless as fuck . Nothing you have done to your constituents absolutely nothing. Go and hibernate. Shame on you all . Public comments for the sake of it . Bonin was drugged out. Really guys ? You guys represent Los Angeles ? Man clowns . Also to the tenant who posts about covid and being disabled and want perpetual housing and disability - GO FUCKIN GET A JOB and contribute for your disability instead of being a bedbug
