Comments for Public Posting: I am getting really tired of writing public comments that this council is clearly disregarding. No resignation, no meeting. No privately passing laws. Don't be cruel and take away emergency rental protections in the middle of an affordable housing crisis and a homelessness crisis. Just be good people. Living in this city being run by criminals is disgusting and exhausting. Y'all were given a blank check by FEMA and didn't give a shit and now you want to choose to evict people that need your support in favor of supporting the upper class. Stop pretending to serve the people when you are against the people. You have the power to make Los Angeles a great city, yet you are insistent on making backroom deals that cause homelessness and trauma and tragedy. The blood of the unhoused is on your hands. Get the racist, money-hungry dealers out of the positions of power and choose to listen to the people who make the time to speak to you.
