Comments for Public Posting: regarding "Monetary Threshold – Eviction for Non-payment of Rent" this is a great idea! thank you city council for preventing me from becoming homeless and joining the 72,000 homeless in the cold and rainy weather. the monetary threshold amount should be higher. around $6,000 or more. things are not going well right now for us poor people. the buses are hard to use in the rain. the cold and rainy weather is making us sicker. inflation is making food & utilities unaffordable. i think everyone would agree that food has priority over rent.
