Dear PLUM Committee:

I am writing today to express my support for cultural Heritage Monument designation for the following building. The Hoffman Candy Co., Building represents early 20th century commercial confectionary business in Los Angeles. This is a striking example of Art deco architecture, designed by Charles Plummer, an architect of high merit. Clifton's Cafeteria, among other buildings in his portfolio have Los Angeles HCM status.

I fully support this nomination put forth by the Art Deco Society of Los Angeles.

Sincerely,
Cindy Clark-Schnuelle
Pasadena, CA

Dear PLUM Committee: This is to inform you that I fully support the nomination for Cultural Heritage Monument designation for the Hoffman Candy Co. building. I am a lover of everything Art Deco and this building is an excellent example of Art Deco architecture—as such, it clearly should receive the aforementioned designation.

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear PLUM Committee:

I am writing today to express my support for Cultural Heritage Monument designation for the following building. The Hoffman Candy Co. building represents early 20th century commercial confectionary business in Los Angeles, situated near a railway for the export of Los Angeles made candy, to destinations around the world. This is a striking example of Art Deco architecture, designed by Charles Plummer, an architect of high merit. Clifton's Cafeteria, among other buildings in his portfolio have Los Angeles HCM status.

I fully support this nomination put forth by the Art Deco Society of Los Angeles.

Sincerely,

Dear PLUM Committee:

I wanted to send a note encouraging my support for the Cultural Heritage Monument designation for the Hoffman Candy Company.

This art deco treasure is a fantastic example of the architecture of Charles Plummer. You may also be aware of his Clifton's Cafeteria design, another building which has CHM status. The building also represents early 20th century Los Angeles history as the candy company made sweets for destinations all around the world.

I wholeheartedly support this nomination as put forth by the Art Deco Society of Los Angeles.

Warm regards,

Todd Calvin
