Comments for Public Posting: Dear Representatives: I attended several of the Ad Hoc Committee on City Governance Reform meetings, the most recent one on April 13. I spent three hours listening and taking notes from Mr. John Wickham (Assistant Chief Legislative Analyst, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF LEGISLATIVE ANALYST). I am deeply concerned about how Committee Chair Paul Krekorian is attempting to undermine the Municipal Lobbying Ordinance (MLO) by putting in BAD amendments. Independent Redistricting is another important and crucial moment in L.A. City politics. It is important that any future Commissioner on the Independent Redistricting must not be influenced by or controlled by any city council member or by any special interest or lobbyists. We cannot repeat what happened the last time when Nury Martinez attempted to interfere with the Los Angeles City Redistricting Commission. Rachel Torress who was an appointee by Nury Martinez was influenced by Nury Martinez and she cannot be trusted ever again. Rachel Torres should NEVER serve on any City Commission board! The way the redistricting was handled was a horrible process. We do not want a repeat ever again!
