Comments for Public Posting: As a Commissioner and Vice Chair of the Board of Neighborhood Commissioners, I know the importance of naming good , dedicated, smart people to city commissions and the important policy work that commissioners must undertake. Commission work is not for those simply looking for a title. So, I wholeheartedly support the appointment of Tanisha Saunders to the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority. She's simply THE BEST. Her life experience, her current professional position, and her dedication to civic engagement and pushing important public policy initiatives makes her a welcome addition to LAHSA. I also administer a leadership development/public policy program on the campus of USC, The Los Angeles African American Women's Public Policy Institute. Tanisha just finished the course and was a welcome addition to the class where her intellect and dedication was a shining light.
