Comments for Public Posting: Hello Los Angeles City Council Members. My name is Roxie Wilson and I live at 1341 West 59th Street in Council District 9. In 2014 a Department of Building and Safety Inspector came to home and gave me a citation for overgrown vegetation. I am an African American senior citizen with mobility issues living on a fixed income. There was no way then and no way now that I could have paid the fine of $550. Since 2014, I have let people from DBS, my city council office and more that I could not pay. During the pandemic, I spoke to a CD representative who told me that the office was going to take care of fees. Today, my fine has been increased to include a late charge fee of 250% ($1,375), accumulated interest of 1% per month ($444.89) and a title report fee of $38. Since the original notice, I have worked to be in compliance with the law. I am asking the city council to waive all of my fees so that I may live the rest of my days in peace, in my home.
