Comments for Public Posting: We were cheated out of a fair and equitable independent redistricting process in 2022 by Nury Martinez , Gil Cedillo and Kevin De Leon. The only way for council to remedy this and not make themselves complicit is to create an independent redistricting commission, and increase the LA City Council to 29 members by 2026. Increasing the number of districts will allow elections to be more democratic and will give our city's people better representation.
